DESCRIPTION OF PARADE ENTRY - PLEASE BE SPECIFIC

All parade entrants must submit a drawing, photo and/or a detailed description of their parade entry (including float specifications) with this registration. All parade entrants should decorate their vehicle or float with a common theme appropriate for Independence Day. Parade entries that are deemed to lack a common theme appropriate for Independence Day or which are aesthetically unappealing will be rejected and asked to submit a new drawing/photo/description.

This parade is for entertainment purposes only. It is not designed as a forum for political, social, religious, or economic ideas or doctrines. St. Charles City/County elected officials, St. Charles City/County political candidates, St. Charles City/County state representatives/senators, and St. Charles City/County state representative/senate candidates are permitted to take part in the parade. U.S. Senate and U.S. Representative candidates are not permitted in the parade. Political candidates are not permitted to hand out materials related to their campaign. Branded t-shirts from float participants and branded floats are permitted. The parade committee shall, in its sole discretion, determine whether an entry is appropriate for this parade. The parade committee reserves the right to reject any entry if not in an established category for uniformity set forth in the guiding rules.
